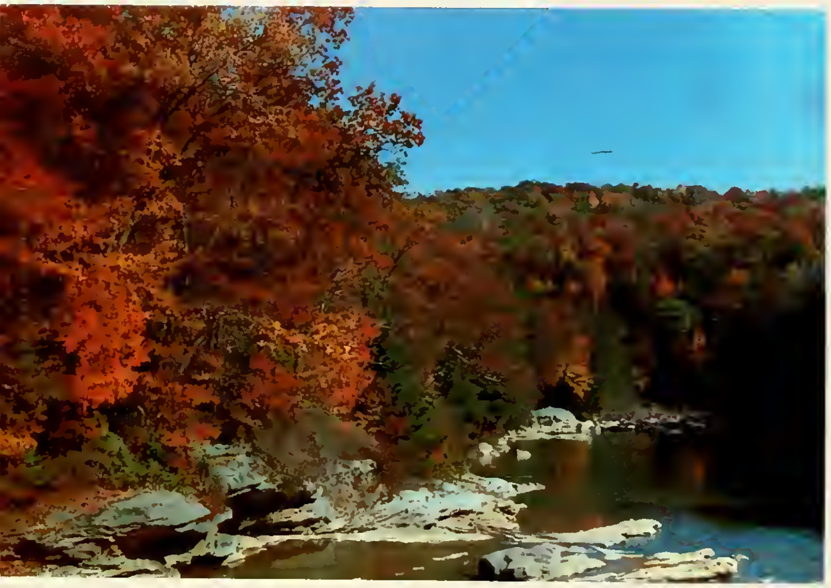
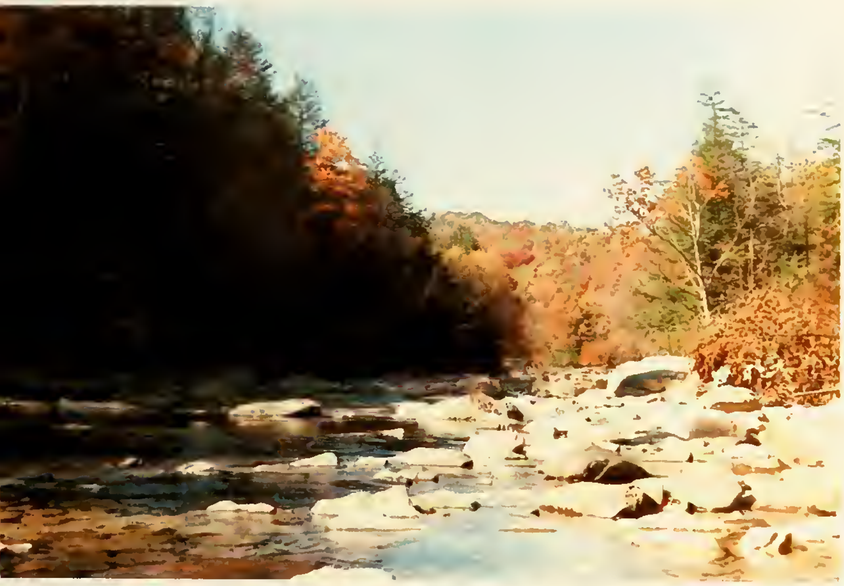
ALONG THE ROAD





Joy at the start

Fear in the journey

Joy in the coming home

A part of the heart Gets lost in the learning

Somewhere . . .

along the road

Along the road
your path may wander

A pilgrims faith may fail

Absence makes the heart grow fonder

Darkness obscures

the trail

cursing the quest

courting disaster

measureless nights forbode moments of rest . . .

Glimpses of laughter

are treasured

along the road

along the road
your steps may stumble your thoughts may start to stray

But through it all
a heart held humble levels and lights the way

Joy at the start
Fear in the journey
Joy in the coming home
A part of the heart
Gets lost in the learning
Somewhere . . .

West Virginia Wesleyan College is an institution that has had a profound impact on the lives of a number of students who have studied here. Our goal is to not only help all of our students obtain a great deal of information about a number of subjects, but also to help them use their experience here to decide what they are going to do to make their lives more creative and more meaningful. I once worked for a person who liked to say that the important thing was whether your being there made a difference. I think that is an apt description of what we hope for and expect from Wesleyan graduates. We hope you are the kind of people who will make a difference.

Our first year here has been exciting and we are looking forward to the years ahead. Mrs. Latimer and I are grateful for the opportunity to serve in this capacity and hope that we, too, in our own way at Wesleyan can make a difference.

LADY BOBCATS CAPTURE FOURTH SEAT AT REGIONALS

The lady Bobcats turned in an outstanding season, ranking first in the state in A.I.A.W. Division III Competition. Although the 1981 season record was posted at a less-than impressive mark of 8-7-1, the numbers don't cover the whole story. Ramsey's 'cats dropped several close matches in double overtime, and outscored their roster opponents by a margin of 36 total goals to 23. High scorer for the Bobcats was Sophomore, Missy McCloskey, who knocked in 13 points. The team traveled to a Lynchburg (Va) Invitational Tournament, placing fourth amidst a tough field of seven Mid-Atlantic seaboard small-school competitors. A season end bid to compete in the A.I.A.W. Division III Regional Tournament led the squad to Kalamazoo Michigan, where eight midwest-region schools fought freezing temperatures and battled it out for a bid to National play in Virginia. For the eighth-ranked West Virginians, the highlight of the tournament was an upset victory over first-ranked powerhouse Denison (Ohio) University. Two heartbreaking overtime losses followed, and Wesleyan finished fourth overall. The 1981 squad boasted greater depth than has been seen in the Wesleyan program for some years, and a core of returning players promises strength to keep secure Wesleyan's newly-founded reputation as a regional contender.

The Wesleyan soccer team had one of the finest seasons in the school's history. The cats won its first Conference Championship since 1966. The team went undefeated in the Conference during the regular season; an outstanding achievement that has never been seen before by the soccer team. Playing a difficult schedule, the team amassed a 12-4-1 record. Notable wins were registered over Alderson Broaddus, Davis and Elkins, Ohio University, University of D.C., and University of Pittsburg. Tom Martin's four years at Wesleyan have been extremely successful. His record at Wesleyan is 45-15-5. During the four years, Coach Martin and the three Senior Tri-Captains, Martin Woodstock, Roger Gordon-Martin and Preston Modlin, saw the program rise to a National power. The Cats ended the season ranked 10th NAIA, 10th NCAAII and holding the number one ranking ISAA for the Mid-Atlantic States. The team was led by three time All-American Martin Woodstack. His honors are lengthy including four years All South, WVIK player of the year, 1981, and a candidate for the Senior Bowl. Both he and Gordon-Martin were first string All-Conference selections four consecutive years. Several other players received honors: Martin Woodstock: All-South, All WVIAC, MVF WVIAC; Roger Gordon-Martin: All-WVIAC, Captain; David Turner; All-WVIAC; Preston Modlin: Captain. Coach Martin: WVIAC NAIA Dist. Coach of the Year. All 11 Starters making All-WVIAC. The team started out with a defeat by Penn. State, many cast aside the thought of an impressive year. The team proceeded to go nine games without a loss. The team finished the season as Conference Champs and played at home in the NAIA District 28 playoffs for the first time. The cats defeated rival Charleston, 3-1 in the first round and fell to eventual National Runner up team Alderson Broaddus 1-0. Growing awareness of the sport is coming about at W.V.W.C. At the final playoff game the crowd was estimated at 2,000. The team would, like to thank all the people who made this year so successful. The 1981 soccer team should be commended for an excellent season and a job well done.

West Virginia Wesleyan Women's Tennis team captured third in the WVIAC Tournament, under the leadership of Coach Sam Ross. Freshman, Julie Willison, captured the spot light, going undefeated at the #2 seat and winning the WVIAC Tournament. Diane Ross had another outstanding season holding the #1 seat in singles for the fourth consecutive year. Coach Ross regrets the loss of Seniors, Diane Ross, Lisa Humphrey and Beth Courtney. However, Coach Ross looks forward to another successful season with the strength of the returning players.

"Positive Mental Attitude" lead the team to a Winning Season.

Wesleyan's football team fell short of its goal to be a conference contender in 1981 with a final record of 2-6-1. The Bobcats didn't have a very easy beginning as they faced three teams ranked in the top 20 Division I, NAIA. First there was Gardner-Webb College out of the tough SAC-8 Conference in North Carolina. The Bobcats battled the Bulldogs to the end as Wesleyan was stopped inside the Gardner-Webb 10 yard line late in the game and dropped a tough 14- 7 decision. Next our Bobcats faced Concord and Fairmont, the Co-Champions of the conference in 81. Wesleyan stayed in both games until late in the contest and dropped a 44-14 decision to Concord and by the lopsided score of 55-20 against Fairmont State. The Bobcats won the first victory of the 81' Campaign with a convincing 21-0 homecoming victory over the W. Va. Tech. Golden Bears. The Wesleyan wishbone offense controlled the game as they ran 98 total plays for 364 yards and 20 first downs. Wesleyan then lost by a 20-3 count to the tough Shepherd State Rams. This lost lowered the overall record to 1 win and 4 losses. The Bobcats then bounced back to defeat the Glenville Pioneers 12-3. Wesleyan's defense shut down the Glenville offense as Paul Kaufmann kept his 100 yard per game rushing average. Wesleyan then returned home to face a big W. Va. State ball club and played one of the most exciting conference games of the year. Down by a 21 point deficit, the Bobcats battled back to tie the Yellowjackets 32-32. The season's final game saw Wesleyan jump out to a 14-0 lead over rival Salem College. Mistakes and turnovers cost the Cats the lead and the game, losing 47-26 and finishing the season with a record of 2-6-1.

The Wesleyan Lady Bobcat basketball team suffered through its most disappointing season in five years, posting a 5-19 slate. Coach Caroline Ramsey's squad lost their first four decisions of the winter and dropped their last ten of the campaign to post the disappointing mark.

Four players concluded the season with double figure scoring averages. Junior Cathy Mullooly posted a team leading 16.5 per game average, while Tammie Shockey scored 13.4, Mary Ann Balli 11.1. and Amy Felker 10.1.

The team's biggest victory came in a 90-58 rout of Salem. In that contest, the Lady Bobcats shot over sixty percent from the floor, and did not miss a shot in the first ten minutes of the game. However, for the most part, the squad was hampered by lack of height and by injuries to Balli and Shockey.

Other members of the team included Peggy Smith, Christy Roberts, Lorrie Isaac, Jan Cummins, Colleen Polazneck, Sue Starr, and Sue Skidmore.

Exciting, Unpredictable, and Controversial. That is the best way to sum up the 1981-82 West Virginia Wesleyan College basketball season. The Bobcats posted a 15-14 season record, which was the school's sixth winning season in seven years. The Cats also placed third in the annual West Virginia Conference Tournament in Charleston, the fourth time in six seasons Wesleyan has reached the final four. The season was exciting in the way the team played. With senior forward Roy Humphrey slamming through 51 dunks and averaging 20 points per game, the orange and black picked up impressive wins over Kent State University Charleston, Salem, and Shepherd. The squad also posted a seven game winning streak during January and February, winning all of those contests by an average of 15 points. After slumping in February, the orange and black rebounded with an outstanding tournament performance. The Cats opened their tourney title quest with a 72-63 win over the University of Charleston. While that win was considered a minor upset, Coach Paul Toth's team shocked everyone in the capitol city the following night with a 74-70 victory over nationally ranked Salem. Every Bobcat player had an outstanding effort in this game. While Humphrey earned all-conference and all-tournament honors, several other squad members distinguished themselves during the winter. Senior transfers Lance Bates and Joel Price averaged in double figures, and Chris Harrison, Bill Dreisbach, Milton Jennette, Jim Horton, Kevin Weatherly and Kevin Dokes each sparkled in games throughout the season. Wesleyan basketball was also controversial, because for the first time in over forty years, a coach was fired. In a long running financial dispute between the college and Toth, college officials decided to terminate the basketball coach's contract after the tournament. Despite the controversial finish and disappointments during the season, the year was success for Wesleyan. A victory over Kent State, a third place finish in the WVIAC Tournament, and a winning season gave the program some positive momentum.

Led by senior standout Mary Ann Balli and junior Tammie Shockey the Women's Track squad opened the season at the Early Bird Relays. Performing well the team next submitted to frigid weather to run at Laidley Field. Taking only five members to the Frail Relays, led by most valuable female participant, Shockey, the team took 5th place. In the only home meet the Lady Cats took on Fairmont. Taking seven first places the team took first place honors. The team then traveled to Central State in Ohio in preparation of the conference meet. The team was 6 out of 13 schools. Going into the conference meet against a strong field the Lady Cats took second behind WV State. Led by All Conference Tammie, Shockey, Mary Ann Balli, and Beth Edwards, the Lady Cats placed in 11 of 13 events. Jr. Tammie Shockey took first in the Javelin, 2nd in the shot, and 110 hurdles, 3rd in the high jump and discus, and was member of the 400 and spring medley relay team. Senior Balli, closed out her 4 year career placing 1st in the high jump, taking 5th in the 100 dash and was a member of the 400, medley and mile relay team. Tennis had one of its most successful seasons. Coach Martin's squad was led by seniors Dale Powell, and Ed Crawford. Other upperclassmen playing well were Dick Warhurst, John Gillespie, Tim Hulsey, and Tom Martin. Rob Kinkade and Tony Pace completed the starting line up as freshman. For Athletes

Thanks, Lord, for giving me life; and talents for my participation in sports. Help me to play well to use my powers to the full, to see them as gifts from you. Be with me when I need to play hurt, when I have to deal with the pain of injury, disappointment, loss. Keep aware of the brotherhood I have with all men, even when they are opponents; free me from the temptation to fake, to foul, to cheat. I need to see that dedication to the cause will mean suffering, but let me know that it is a kind of suffering that leads to new life and greater maturity. Help me play with heart and never lose heart. Most of all help me never quit in my efforts to be open to you. For all believe your full coming into my life is the way to real life, in all I do, I believe it is the way of my becoming the truly human person you destined me to be. Amen.

We are a Society which encourages excellence in the social sciences among undergraduate and graduate students. Membership and leadership in the collegiate chapters are shared equally between faculty and students. Our chapters are located in large universities, in medium sized institutions and in small, liberal arts colleges in the United States and abroad.

As an honor society we not only give recognition to good scholarship but we actively promote it all year long by enriching activities, a lectureship program, and student-faculty fellowship. Pi Gamma Mu chapters can choose to do those academic things on campus which are being neglected.

Founded in 1924, Pi Gamma Mu now has 130,000 members in 160 active chapters.

LAURA ANN ADKINS — "Wealth, notoriety, place, and power are no measure of success whatever. The only true measure of success is the ratio between what we might have done and what we might have been on the one hand, and the thing we have made and the thing we have made of ourselves on the other." H. G. Wells

DIANN L. ALDRIDGE — "To laugh often and much; to win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children; to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends . . . to know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived. This is to have succeeded." Ralph Waldo Emerson

CALVIN J. ARNOLD — I would like to wish my fellow classmates as well as everyone I know here at Wesleyan, a very happy, successful and long life.

DEBORAH LYNN BARKER — If you have tried to do something and failed, you are vastly better off than if you had tried to do nothing and succeeded.

TAMMY JO BAKER — A friend is one who: pushes you in the swing, pulls you up the ladder, pats you on the back and hugs you good-bye. Katherine N. Davis

MELANIE H. BOYNES — "Once in a while I just get away from everyone and go off by myself. I never really do anything. But still I accomplish so much."

RANDY BROWN — "Play the right notes at the right time and you can make alot of money." Sir Andrew Scott

JOSEPH B. BURGESS — If builders built buildings the way programmers wrote programs, then the first woodpecker that came along would destroy Wesleyan.

ELIZABETH CAMPBELL — "If I were to begin life again, I should want it as it was. I would only open my eyes a little more."

SHONIWA CHIPFUNDE — Going through college, like any other aspect of our lives, requires willpower. Many thanks to my family and friends for strengthening my willpower.

DALE CHOMAS — Behold, what I have seen to be good and to be fitting is to eat and drink and find enjoyment in all the toil with which one toils under the sun the few days of his life which God has given him, for this is his lot. Every man also to whom God has given wealth and possessions and power to enjoy them, and to accept his lot and find enjoyment in his toil — this is the gift of God. For he will not much remember the days of his life because God keeps him occupied with joy in his heart. Ecclesiastes 5:18-22.

RICH ELLIOTT — Theatre rots before it heals.

RICHARD A. EVE — After eight years it's about time.

MARY EXLINE — Fear knocks at the door; faith opened it; and no one was there.

BECKY FAST — And in the sweetness of friendship let there be laughter, and sharing of pleasure. For in the dew of little things the heart finds its morning and is refreshed. Kahlil Gibran

KATHLEEN MARIE FULK — To live your life in your own way . . . to reach for the goals you have set for yourself . . . to be the you that you want to be . . . that is SUCCESS.

JANE S. GARRABRANT — "The people who get on in this world are the people who get up and look for the circumstances they want, and if they can't find them, make them." George Bernard Shaw

CANDY LEE GILL — Have you ever tried to reach for something and no matter how hard you stretched or how hard you reached you can never quite grab hold of it. No matter how close you got to that something it always seemed to move a little more. Then you suddenly realized that something doesn't stop moving. But I'm still reaching and stretching for that something. Because it doesn't matter how a man dies, but how he lives.

GREGORY A. GODWIN — "Peace is active, not passive. Peace is doing, not waiting, peace is aggressive, attacking. It plans its strategy. Peace like war is waged." Jimmy Carter

JANE HAINES — It is our nature that from the beginning we struggle to make sense out of life, death and all that goes between this search for meaning is the most abiding force in our lives. We must find meaning in what we do, or our whole existence becomes a mockery.

DAN HARMAN — We are led to believe that after achieving this much it is all over; actually it's just beginning.

WENDY HARRIS — O God, draw us from the periphery of life, where we have been living into the center. Draw us from our preoccupation with self-pleasing into thy presence where we long only to be faithful to thee. Draw us from our claimful selves and give us willingness to thyself. For in thy presence we find the complex becoming simple and the compulsive activities giving way to live a life so simple that a little suffices.

CAROL JEAN CLARK — "What you are is God's gift to you, what you make of yourself is your gift to God."

RICHARD TODD CLARK — Art is Man's way of seeking order amist the increasing chaos of his existence.

SHARON LOUISE CLIFFORD — "Let me hear thy loving kindness in the morning: for I trust in thee: teach me the way in which I should walk; for to thee I lift up my soul." (Psalm 143:8)

JOSEPH E. CONLEY — "Know the truth, and the truth shall make you dull."

E. CHRISTINE COOK — "We are the seeds of the tenacious plant, and it is in our ripeness and our fullness of heart that we are given to the wind and are scattered." Kahlil Gibran

ANDREW D. COUCH — Set your goals high and work hard to attain them, dream and think how great it would be if your dreams came true, strive to be all that you can be. But most importantly . . . be happy.

PENNY L. DAILEY — Don't let anyone steal your dreams!

MARY ELLEN D'AMICO — Fame is the scentless sunflower with a gaudy crown of gold, but friendship is the breathing rose, with sweets in every fold. Holmes

NANCY DAVIDSON — Happy are all who perfectly follow the laws of God. Psalms 119:1

MARY DAY — Time is . . . Too short for those who ponder. Too long for those who grieve. Too quick for those who are happy. For those who love, time is not. Time is like the tide, always constant. For us time is short so use it wisely for once it is gone, it never returns. B. Sembly

TONYA DEAN — Life is too short to take for granted, so live everyday to its fullest.

SAM DOANE — "What I feel I must never forget, for even within pain and sorrow lies a celebration of life."

KIMBERLY DONNELLY — Weeping may endure for a night but joy comes in the morning. Psalms 30:5

D. SIMONE DURRAH — Let us not be weary in doing well; for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not. Galations 6:9

JEANETTE HEISKELL — Love when you can, cry when you have to . . . be who you must, that's part of the plan. Await your arrival with simple survival and one day we'll all understand . . . Dan Fogelburg

LAUREL JANE HOOK — The rat race is over; the rats won!

LISA A. HUMPHREYS — You can, if you think you can.

LOIS E. INFANGER — "The real purpose of our existence is not to make a living, but to make a life — a worthy, well-rounded, useful life." Apples of Gold

KAREN JONES — What greater joy than to arise with the dawn of each new day when the whole world beckons us to meet its challenges — to share in its never-ending mysteries. What greater joy than to seize all life has to offer and to make the most of what we have and who we are as we prepare the way to a bright and beautiful tomorrow.

LISE JORGENSEN — Each moment of the year has its own beauty, a picture which was never seen before and which will never be seen again. Ralph Waldo Emerson

LYNN KEIR — Success is to be measured not so much by the position that one has reached in life as by the obstacles which he has overcome while trying to succeed. Booker T. Washington

FRED KING JR. — "Always have a dream; for only dreams can come true."

KRISTI L. KIRCHNER — The same rule holds for us now, of course; we choose our next world through what we learn in this one. Learn nothing and the next world is the same as this one, all the same limitations and lead weights to overcome." J. L. S.

DAWN KOCH — I love you "the 83rd" and "The better half" for the best four years of life! I'm gonna miss you ΑΓΔ and especially Craig C. Remember "You can do all things through Christ who gives you strength." How about dropping me a line T. L.?

DENISE A. KORNICHUK — ... The only thing in this world that remains consistent is inconsistency ... Rod

SUZANNE LITTLE — Will you gather daydreams, or will you gather wealth? How can you find your fortune if you cannot find yourself? Susan Polis Schutz

WILLIAM LOWE — "I've been to many wonderful campuses, and this isn't one of them: only kidding. I'll miss you."

JANICE ELAINE MAISCH — Of all the creations of the earth and heaven, LOVE is the most precious.

BARBARA McCLEAN — If you have a goal in life that takes a lot of energy, that incurs a great deal of interest, and that is a challenge to you, you will always look forward to waking up to see what the new day brings. Susan Polis Schutz

WILLIAM ALAN McDERMOTT — Say goodbye to the past, live the present, and say hello to the future.

CAROL McLAUGHLIN — I get by with a little help from my friends. John Lennon

MARK A. MLACK — New friends are like autumn leaves found everywhere. Old friends are like diamonds precious and rare.

PAUL NAYLOR — "And finally . . . we are freshman once again."

RICKY NELSON — I've learned my lesson well. You can't please everyone so you've got to please yourself.

JULIANN A. NICOLETTE — The happiest person is the person who thinks the most interesting thoughts.

JULIE A. OLSEN — May the Lord Mighty God bless and keep you forever, grant you peace — perfect peace, courage in every endeavor. Lift your eyes and see His face and His grace forever. May the Lord Mighty God bless and keep you forever! (I love you Mom and Dad.)

DOREEN PLANCK — To know someone here or there with whom you can feel there is understanding in spite of distances or thoughts unexpressed . . . that can make of this earth a garden. "Goethe"

DAVID CHESTER POSTLETHWAIT — If I leave here tomorrow, will you still remember me? Lynyrd Skynyrd

VALERIE RODGERS — The great thing in this world is not so much where we stand, as in what direction we are moving. Take with you the most constant, and enduring part of love — friendship.

MARGARET RUDLOFF — What is faith? It is the confident assurance that something we want is going to happen. It is the certain that we hope for is waiting for us, even though we cannot see it up ahead. Hebrews 11:1

JOHN P. RUGGIERI — When the waves of your life turn against you and the tide upsets your boat, don't waste those tears on what might have been, just lay on your back and float.

BRUCE SCHANCK — I'm leaving a place where at times I've loved and hated, matured and been a child, learned from books and people, but most of all I'm leaving a place I will remember.

RONALD E. SCHROEDER — "He who has a why to live can bear almost any how." Nietzsche

TERRY SCHULTZ — Who we are, who we become is determined by those who love us.

KAREN SEKIRA — All we need is an ear to listen, an eye to behold, and a heart to feel.

CYNTHIA L. SHEPPARD — Friendship is the inexpressible comfort of feeling safe with a person having neither to weigh thoughts nor measure words.

RUSSEL SPEICHER — "Sometimes the lights all shining on me
Other times I can barely see
Lately it occurs to me
What a long strange trip it's been." R. Hunter

JOHN DAVID SPELSBERG — Res Ipsa Loquitor — things speak for themselves.

JENILEE STEMPLE — Whatever course my life takes, I shall not have wasted my education. I have grown to love life and learning; I have found pelasures that material success can never equal.

SHARON JOYCE STORY — God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, courage to change the things I can, and the wisdom to know the difference. Ex Libris

DAVID TURNER — "Success is being the best you are capable of being, and failure is only when you accept it."

JOYCE C. WALKER — And it's just a box of rain or a ribbon for your hair, such a long, long time to be gone, and a short time to be there.

DIANE M. WALASZCZYK — "So tell me about myself. Or don't bother; I have enough plans already to last, if not a lifetime, at least well into next week."

CYNTHIA LYNN WELCH — The greatest achievement was at first and for a time a dream. Dreams are the seedlings of realities.

DEBORAH WHITE — To live your life in your own way . . . To reach for the goals you have set for yourself . . . To be the you that you want to be . . . That is SUCCESS.

DONNA YOUNG — "We take too much for granted, that which is priceless."

CAMDEN AVE. PROJECT SONG

by Kevin Duckworth, Mark Miller, Greg Smith
and Steve Zellers

Oh well, the Camden Ave. Project is a
Blowing down the street.
I wish I knew where all that lumber went!
Will I be living at the BiCi-
Maybe quad side or Jenkins?
Or maybe I'll be living in a tent!

I used to have an apartment down on Meade St.
But Billy Johnson said I couldn't stay.
He said we've got a place for you on Camden
And twice the money you're-a-gonna pay.

Chorus

They said that they could have it up by August Dean Bailey said, "Hey, Fellows it's a must.
But April winds came zipping down the oval
And left his promise lying in a pile-of-dust.

Chorus

Next year I'll have a girl in after hours
And she'll be lying sweetly on-my bed.
I'll gently lay my hand upon the . . . lightswitch
And the ceiling will come crashing on my head.

Chorus

If you come back to Wesleyan next semester
To live in Camden Ave. with me
Do yourself a dandy little favor —
Take out an extra life insurance policy!!!

Chorus

"And of His fulness have all received and grace for grace."
(John 1:16)

"In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you."
(John 14:2)

"Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation; and uphold me with thy free spirit."
(Psalm 51:12)

"But grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To Him be glory both now and forever. Amen."
(II Peter 3:18)

Sharon Barley

To have spent time with Sharon Barley was to have spent time smiling. All my recollections of her are recollections of that smiling face. As a resident assistant, an active member in her field of study and of the Christian life at Wesleyan she was a living example of care and concern. It is certain that those who knew Sharon had their lives enriched. Those who spoke to her were really listened to, those who cared about her were sincerely cared about in return.

The summer after her junior year, after extensive testing, it was determined that a lump in Sharon's arm was malignant. In the course of the next year the cancer was found in several other locations. It became evident that arresting the cancer would be nearly impossible. During this last year a gallant fight was shown. Having so much complete faith and trust Sharon showed the strength that her friends sometimes could not. Those of us who cared for Sharon feel a great sense of loss, but we must be thankful that she only suffered for a year. We must remember that she had a rich and fulfilling life, that she had the love of her friends, her family and God. We must be thankful for the blessings God gave each of us through Sharon Barley.

I WISH YOU JESUS

by Scott Wesley Brown

I could wish you joy and peace
To last a whole life long
I could wish you sunshine
Or a cheerful little song
Or wish you all the happiness
That this life could bring

CHORUS
But I wish you Jesus
But I wish you Jesus
But I wish you Jesus
More than anything

I could wish you leaves of gold
And may your path be smooth
I could wish you treasures
Or that all your dreams come true
And I could wish you paradise
That everyday be spring

CHORUS
But I wish you Jesus
But I wish you Jesus
But I wish you Jesus
More than anything

I could wish you joy and peace
To last a whole life long
I could wish you sunshine
Or a cheerful little song
Or wish you all the happiness
That this life could bring

CHORUS
But I wish you Jesus
But I wish you Jesus
But I wish you Jesus
More than anything

'Cause when I wish you Jesus
I've wished you everything!

Editor's Farewell

All year long I've wondered what I was going to write on this page. — I think we all have memories tucked away in our hearts from the past four, five, or six years we've spent attending this institution; maybe I shouldn't say institution, sounds so stuffy, but I guess basically education can be a grueling, rigid process. Fortunately, I can say, as I hope other fellow graduates say, my education at Wesleyan has been more than books, classes, tests and grades. I have grown so much these past four years, along with the memories, a part of me will always be Wesleyan, and I guess, as we all do, I hope Wesleyan will hold on to a part of me.

Many times we think of the happy times as the only ones, standing out helping us to climb those mountains. But you know it is those valleys we may enter bringing us to the foot of those hills which begins the upward search. The past summer brought about the deepest valley I have ever entered — in fact I wasn't even sure I'd be able to manage this publication along with all the other responsibilities I had undertaken. Very suddenly my father passed away, I loved him more than anyone, and I miss him very much. As I looked upon my senior year a fear arose because in front of me stood a mountain with peaks higher than I'd ever attempted to climb. Somebody was watching over me through it all, carrying me along the paths until I could once again travel on my own two feet. I was never alone because I had Jesus as my Lord and friend. I know what you are thinking . . . you've heard it all before — but have you ever given Him half a chance??? We are all so fortunate to have someone love us unconditionally no matter what. It's a beautiful experience to have a relationship with the Lord. I remember a verse He gave me which I hold to dearly; I'd like to share it with you . . . Proverbs 3:5&6 "Trust in the Lord with all your heart, And do not lean on thy own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge Him and He will make your paths straight." Everyday I praise the Lord for the beautiful life He has given me. So many times I wanted to give up all that I had because I felt empty without my father until I realized just how precious life with the Lord really is. I want to live for the Lord, serve Him and do His will. I hope many of you will decide to ascertain this communion with Jesus as well. Along with the love, strength, and understanding from Jesus, I was blessed with many caring people who I will never forget. Each of them holds a special place in my heart. I want to thank them for helping me to grow, never letting me down, and always sharing their feelings, thoughts and, most of all, love with me.

Thanks for always being there . . .!

Kathy, Dawn, Chris, Karyn, Val, (my big brother) Mike, Craig, Tom, (the rest of the 83rd members) Paul, and Zeta
I love you all very much . . .

To Wesleyan and my fellow graduates
I wish you the best . . . along with Scott Wesley Brown.

Love in Christ,
